

Step 6.8: What employers say

Qualities for work	Qualities for the staffroom
Ability to handle the students they will teach	Someone who supports other staff
Ability to manage the workload	Someone who is easy to communicate with Someone who is open

Why does Steve ask interviewees to tell him how they would use a page of a coursebook?

He does this to find out more about what decisions the candidate makes and why they make them. For example, he would be able to see how the candidate would vary the dynamic of the class, and what they know about language.
