

Caring for Older People: A Partnership Model

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- describe partnership-centred care
- explain the benefits of a partnership-centred model of care for older people, their family and healthcare teams
- develop and apply partnership-centred care strategies to best support the needs and preferences of older people.

WEEK 1: PUTTING OLDER PEOPLE FIRST

©iStock.com/BrilliantEye

An introduction to ageing and care

Meet your education team and start exploring ageing from an older person's perspective.

©iStock.com/FredFroese

A partnership approach to care

Find out what a partnership approach to care is and how it differs from other care models.

©iStock.com/KatarzynaBialasiewicz

A matter of perspective

Discover how a partnership approach to care brings together all of an older person's health and social networks.

©iStock.com/asiseeit

Everyone has a role to play

Explore the different roles and responsibilities of each person involved in partnership-centred care.

©iStock.com/PamelaJoeMcFarlane

Weekly wrap

Reflect on the key ideas and principles that you covered in Week 1 before testing your knowledge and hearing from our Lead Educator about what's on for next week.

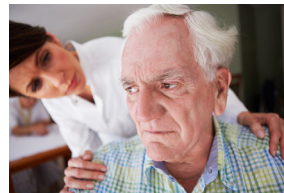

WEEK 2: THE PARTNERSHIP APPROACH IN ACTION

©iStock.com/Squaredpixels

Supporting the needs and preferences of older people

Explore how a partnership approach to care supports the needs and preferences of older people by engaging their health and social networks.

©iStock.com/Squaredpixels

Dealing with challenges

Examine some of the challenges associated with ageing and how you might address these when adopting a partnership-centred approach to care.

©iStock.com/Jevtic

Practical strategies

Create a partnership-centred care plan based on a toolkit of practical strategies.

©iStock.com/Squaredpixels

It's a wrap

Reflect on the key ideas and principles you covered in Week 2 and submit your questions for our education team to answer.